

A map of the Houston metropolitan area showing four Total Maximum Daily Load (TMDL) project areas. The Bacteria Implementation Group (BIG) TMDL is shown as a large green area covering much of the central and northern parts of the map, including areas around Walker, Montgomery, Waller, Harris, and Fort Bend. The Upper Oyster Creek TMDL is shown as an orange area south of the BIG TMDL, near Fort Bend. The Chocolate Bayou TMDL is shown as a red area further east, near Galveston. The Caney Creek TMDL is shown as a purple area in the southwest, near Wharton and Matagorda. The map includes major highways (Interstates 10, 45, 69, 59, 30, 90, 159, 290, 71, 35, 60; State Routes 36, 6, 288, 146, 156, 105, 249, 99, 646), county boundaries, and waterways. A legend in the bottom right corner identifies the symbols for Waterways, BIG Project Area, Upper Oyster Creek Project Area, Chocolate Bayou Project Area, Caney Creek Project Area, Highways, and County Boundary. A scale bar indicates distances from 0 to 15 miles, and a north arrow is present.
